

COMPREHENSIVE SEXUAL EDUCATION FOR STUDENTS

THE FACTS & VOTING RECORD

The California Healthy Youth Act requires Comprehensive Sex Education (CSE) in California schools. The result is, students are exposed to sexually explicit curriculum and ideas in our K-12 classrooms.

THE FACTS

Teaches children how to obtain birth control, the morning after pill, and get an abortion--all without parental knowledge.

Subjects children to supplemental materials such as "It's Perfectly Normal," a graphic book that illustrates nude males and females in sexually explicit bedroom scenes.

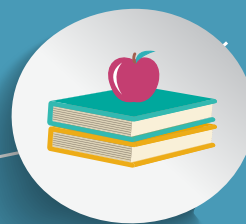

Promotes anal sex and encourages the act as a way to avoid pregnancy

Exposes children to online links to read interviews discussing vaginal and anal sex.

Communicates acceptance of sex outside of marriage.

Mandates CSE in middle and high school, but it can be taught in all grades.
